

THE ADDITIONAL HAND COUNTED BALLOTS

Early election morning, I was called to go to the Northview #1 Precinct because the Optical Scan voting equipment was not working properly. When I arrived, there were several people voting, so I observed a voter using the optical scan machine. When the ballot was submitted, the machine rejected it and the LCD reader read "Invalid Ballot". I knew that couldn't be the case because it was working earlier and there is only one ballot style for this polling location and that was ballot #1. So I left to get an optic scan machine to replace the one that was malfunctioning.

While I was on route back to the polling location, I received a call from the judges at Northview #1. They realized the problem was not the machine but the ballots. They were giving out ballot #2 and the machine is programmed to accept ballot #1. There were two packages of ballot #2 with a 100 in each. There was only 1 package opened and 66 ballots were given to the voters. There were 26 unvoted ballots and 8 were spoiled. I brought the remaining ballots back to the office so no more mistakes would be made. I also called every polling location to verify that they received the proper ballots.

At the end of the night, all those ballots that were placed on the side of the machine both ballot #1 and ballot #2 were separated. All of #1 ballots were run through the voting machine and all of the ballot #2 (66 total) were hand counted for each race. The two ballots were exactly the same except for State Representative District 141 and State Representative District 142. Ballot #2 had State Representative District 142 and the voters in that area are ineligible to vote in that race. However, the race for State Representative 141 received no votes. The span of votes for State Representative District 141 between Kevin Elmer and Bob Rubino was so great that 66 votes for either candidate would not have affected the outcome.

The hand counts of all the races on ballot #2 are indicated by the additions typed on the totals for each candidate on Precinct Northview 1, the summary totals, and the SOVC sheet.

If you have any questions, please give me a call at 417-581-6360.

Sincerely,

Kay Brown

The machine would not accept ballots and LCD screen read invalid ballot. Called the office to tell them the opti-scan machine was malfunctioning. Kay Brown checked the machine and verified that it wasn't accepting the ballots. When this began we had the voters use the side slot to insert the ballots. Kay arrived with a new opti scan and ~~to~~ we determined what the problem was. One of the voters asked why the State Representative races were different. He wanted to vote in the 14th race and his ballot had the 142nd race. It was then that judges realized they had 2 lots of ballot style #2. They should have only had ballot #1. The reason it was overlooked because judges were overloaded with voters which remained constant throughout the day. We devised a plan of how to remedy the problem, then Kay called the Secretary of State to review the procedure with Leslie the legal counsel for the Secretary of State.

So at the end of the day all the judges and Ann Davis, the Voter Assistant, sorted ballots and tallied them. Totals were found to be correct and no votes tallied for Certified Write-In Candidates.
